

How are toys different to my parents and grandparents?

Key Knowledge and Concepts

Word	Definition
question	Something that needs an answer.
past	Before or long ago
toy	An object that can be played with change	Something becomes different.

Toys in the past were sometimes made from different materials and many were different to those we have today.

Here is a picture of a doll from today.

Here is one from the past.

Our grandparents may have played with different toys to us. We can ask questions to find out about the past.

Toys in the past were often made from wood.

Today, toys are often made from plastic.

