Key Knowledge and Concepts

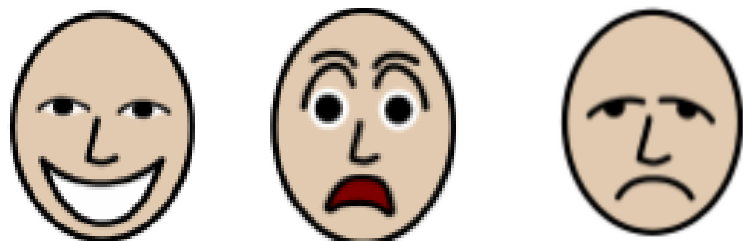

You can help everyone feel safe at school by being kind to everyone, listening to others, and following the class rules.

You can ask adults at school to help you like a teacher, teaching assistant or people in the office.

Sometimes you need to need to ask for help when you're hurt, stuck with your work, when you want to play or if nobody arrives to pick you up from school.

You may feel happy, scared or sad to start school.
