

What does it mean to work together?

- What am I and other people good at?
- What new skills would I like to develop?
- How can I listen well to other people?
- How can I work well in a group?
- Why is it important to take turns?
- How can I negotiate to sort out disagreements?
- How are my skills useful in a group?
- What is a useful evaluation?

Word	Definition
Skill	To do something well
Turn	To know when it is your time to say or do something
Difficult	Hard to do something
Group	A number of people doing something together
disagree	To have a different idea or view

Key Knowledge and Concepts

What are you good at? What would you like to get better at?

I can learn something new by: telling myself to keep going; don't give up; asking other people to help you; imagining what it will feel like when you can do it.

I can show good listening by: giving eye contact, nodding, smiling, asking questions about the subject.

It is ok to change your mind about something.

We must always think of other people otherwise: not everyone would get a turn on the climbing frame; our class would always be first for lunch; the same person would do all the jobs.

When we work as a group we should: listen to each other; take it in turns to speak or write; speak politely; know that you might not agree with everyone but that is ok.

