

What will make our city a more respectful place?

Key Knowledge and Concepts

Word	Definition
Diversity	Many different types of people
Respect	A positive feeling or action shown towards someone
Tolerance	Willingness to accept beliefs different to your own
Prejudice	An unfair or unreasonable feeling or opinion
Discrimination	Treating a person unfairly because of who they are
Community	A group of people
Narborough Road	Most diverse road in the UK

Diversity means understanding that each individual is unique, and recognising our individual differences and similarities.

Religious tolerance is allowing people to think or practice whatever beliefs and religions they want to.

Prejudice is an unfair feeling or opinion.

Discrimination means treating someone unfairly because of who they are.

It is possible to respect others even if you don't agree with them.

Leicester is one of the most ethnically diverse cities in the UK.

People in Leicester come from more than 50 countries around the world.

In 2015, Narborough Road was officially named as the most diverse road in the UK. with 22 countries represented.

Diwali in Leicester is the largest Diwali celebration outside of India.

