

How can I build positive relationships and work collaboratively?

Key Knowledge and Concepts

Word	Definition
collaborate	To work together on a task responsibility	Responsibility means being dependable, making good choices, and taking accountability for your actions respect	The state or condition of being thought of with honour or admiration empathy	To be able to share or understand the emotions and feelings of another person.
resilient/ resilience	To be able to withstand and recover quickly from difficulty

Things that help me to learn in class might include: listening, working with a partner or working in silence.

When someone new arrives at the school there might be various reasons for this including: because they have moved to the area, because they were not happy at their last school, because their family moves around and lives in different places, because they have recently arrived in this country, because they are refugees from another country.

To make someone feel welcome you might : take them on a tour, be their buddy for the day, introducing them to my friends.

Can you name the people in your network of support, both those I know well and those who I do not know so well.

If you need to there are outside agencies and support services you can contact such as: Child line, the police, social services or the NSPCC.

Cooperatively means working with other people.

Empathy is when someone is able to share or understand the emotions and feelings of another person.

To listen and show you are interested in what someone else is sharing could be done in a number of ways including: making eye contact, using positive body language, active listening and asking appropriate questions.

