

How have schools changed in history?

Key Knowledge and Concepts

Word	Definition
history	The past
different	It is not the same.
photos	A picture taken with a camera.
present	Now or today

Children wrote on dark slate with a piece of chalk.
Today, children write on paper with a pencil.

If a child did not follow the rules, they would be hit with a cane or a wooden ruler. Today, a child would miss some of their playtime or have some time out.

Boys and girls would often be taught separately and sometimes there would be 60 children in a class. Today, we normally have around 30 children in a class and boys and girls work together.

Photos in the past were black and white.

They help us to see how things have changed.

